

“An Afternoon with Robin P. Williams”

Mac author extraordinaire

Learn how she became a celebrity writer about the Macintosh as she speaks with the zeal and passion that have made her writing so popular and beloved.

Saturday, September 27, 2008, 2-5 p.m.

Gloucester County College Health Sciences Bldg.
1400 Tanyard Road, Sewell, NJ 08080 <<http://www.gccnj.edu/>>

FREE ADMISSION—but reservations are required at <www.whoscoming.com/MUGSNJ>

Book Signing: Bring your favorite book by Robin or buy a new one for her to sign at the end of the event.

What they're saying about Robin P. Williams:

Robin P. Williams is the author of dozens of best-selling and award-winning books about the Macintosh, including the groundbreaking The Little Mac Book, The Mac Is Not a Typewriter, and The Non-Designer's Design Book. She is an icon in the Mac community. Through her writing, teaching, and seminars, Robin has educated and influenced an entire generation of computer users in the areas of design, typography, desktop publishing, the Mac, and the Web.

Williams is also a college instructor and lecturer, and with Amy Meilander leads The Understand-ers, a Shakespeare discussion and reading group <<http://www.theunderstanders.com/leaders.html>>. She has been a leader in New Mexico computer-related organizations.

Her sweetheart of 15 years is John Tollett, with whom she has co-authored several books. They have four children.

SOURCES: Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard, Wikipedia, The Understanders, and Robin P. Williams.

Sponsored by Gloucester County College and
The Macintosh Users Group of Southern New Jersey <www.mugsnj.org>